

The Coal Festival Art Show will be held at the historic Wellston Depot, during the Wellston Coal Festival. The show will be open to the public from 10am to 7pm Thursday, September 6th through Friday, September 7th and on Saturday, Sept. 8 from 10am-4pm. The Depot is located on West Second Street beside the railroad tracks.

Check in time for artists interested in entering their works will be Sunday, September 2nd from 12pm-2pm at the Depot. The maximum entry size for paintings is 24x30. All entries must be original work. All paintings and drawings must be framed with wire hangers ready to hang. Various mediums including carvings, ceramics, photography, and paintings will be accepted and welcomed in the show. The maximum number of pieces that may be entered in a category per person is 4 pieces.

The entry fee is $5.00 per item for professional and $3.00 per item for amateur. There is no fee for youth entries.

There will be professional and amateur categories in various mediums as well as categories for youth entries. A monetary prize will be given for placement in all divisions as well as a Best of Show. The Sharon Davis Stubbe Award will be selected and sponsored by Sharon's family. There will also be a People's Choice Award selected from the adult entries.

For more information about the art show, please contact Dana Lockard Wiseman at 740.418.6610.